

Teaching Assistant

Admission and Education Programs for High School Students,
Yokohama National University, 2020-2021

Purpose

Yokohama National University (YNU) has developed the admission and education programs to help high school teachers who teach their students through active learning methods and academic researches, etc. The Graduate School Education Centre of YNU employs graduate students as Teaching Assistants (TA) to increase opportunities to promote the high school teachers and their students through the experiences involved in the academic researches and education programs of YNU.

Major Duties

The management office irregularly asks the TAs to:

- Assist high school teachers and students to do study and academic research in their high schools
 - Assist events or lectures involved in the admission and education programs of YNU
 - Assist teachers of YNU involved in the admission and education programs
- etc.

Qualifications Required

Basic Qualifications:

- Students who are belonging to a Graduate School of YNU in 2020
- Fluent in Japanese spoken

Preferred Qualifications:

- Good interpersonal and communication skills
- Having an interest in education programs of Japanese high schools and universities

Salary

Transportation, 1,200 yen and 1,400 yen per hour are paid for Master Students and Doctor Students, respectively.

Application

Please fill in registration form → <https://bit.ly/2uMZZbM>

Inquiries

The Graduate School Education Centre, Yokohama National University

Associate Prof. Etsuo Segawa

Contact: E-mail/ segawa-etsuo-tb@ynu.ac.jp, Phone/ 045-339-4397,

(The office will ask you to send your information after you contact with the above E-mail address.)